The River Lluge, a tributary of the Conway, though only short, is famed as the most famous rivers in North Wales. On its banks are situated many famous beauty spots, Betws-y-Coed, Pont-y-pair, the Fallow Falls, the Miners Bridge, Capel Curig, and Dolwyddelan, and tourist resort, making this short river one of the most charming walks in England.

Has Joan what a sweet little church it looks. Is it the one you attend. How's the little sister getting on, I hope your workship her same as you did
in the old days !! !!.
